GRENADA

A New Chapter

The Beginning...

Back in 1981, when Gordon 'Butch' Stewart first announced his plans to buy the Bay Roc Hotel in Montego Bay, Jamaica and turn it into the first 'all-inclusive'-style couples resort in the Caribbean, people scoffed. "What is he going to do with a resort that is so close to the airport?" they said.

Cynics didn't think the resort stood a chance and many made predictions on how long it would last - some gave it as little as three months. Over three decades later, Sandals has become one of the world's best loved companies, operating its three distinctive brands in six, soon-to-be seven, Caribbean islands.

Despite its market-leading status, Sandals remains to this day, a family business run by Sandals Resorts International Chairman Gordon 'Butch' Stewart and Chief Executive Officer Adam Stewart.

The Awards

Resorts in the Sandals chain have received virtually every tribute in the industry including the Six Star Diamond and Green Star Diamond Awards from the American Academy of Hospitality Sciences.

The chain has also received countless other accolades including being named the World's Leading All-Inclusive Company by the World Travel Awards for 17 consecutive years. American Express and leading publications such as Travel Weekly and Condé Nast Traveller have also recognised the chain with numerous awards.

A Note from The Chairman

Dear friends,

As you may know, finally bringing Sandals to the beautiful island of Grenada is a personal dream come true for me. I fell in love with the island and its people many years ago and have been waiting for over a decade for the right opportunity to present itself. When it finally did, it was as sweet a moment as I could have hoped for!

The first thing that catches the eye with a great hotel resort is the beach. In 1981 when we were looking at the Bay Roc Hotel in Montego Bay, we really didn't know what we were buying, except that it had a marvelous beach. We invested in the property and created a unique concept and the rest, as they say, is history.

There's much about Sandals LaSource Grenada that reminds me of the early days of Sandals Montego Bay. A beautiful beach and equally wonderful people committed to making it a success. Thankfully now we have almost 33 years of award-winning experience behind us and soon, as you'll see from the pictures, a spectacular hotel resort with all of the elements to make it one of the best in the business.

We must remember that magic doesn't happen by chance and special mention must be made to the huge team of local people, contractors and suppliers on the ground whose hard work and dedication is turning this dream into reality. The level of expertise and effort required to deliver a resort to the high standard that our guests demand in the time frame we are working to cannot be underestimated. We are immensely proud of each and every one of them.

So as we start this exciting chapter in Grenadian hospitality together, I would like to thank you for welcoming us so warmly to your beautiful island and look forward to much success in the future.

All that's good,

Hon. Gordon 'Butch' Stewart, OJ, CD, Hon, LLD
Chairman
Sandals Resorts International

A Welcome from The CEO

We are delighted to be able to update you with our plans and ideas for the future of Sandals LaSource Grenada as well as tell you a little more about who we are as people and as a company. Led by a Grenadian workforce, we have spent the last few months creating what will surely become a sparkling jewel in the Sandals crown.

No expense has been spared, no stone unturned as we strive together to create the perfect hotel resort and we passionately believe that the environment in this wonderful country is conducive to helping us achieve that goal. Lush natural gardens, stunning ocean and beach views and the genuine warmth of the Grenadian people merged with a luxurious property and the greatest amenities, making a spectacular combination that will cause people to stop and take notice the world over. At Sandals, we are always looking to better ourselves as a company and our resorts and we've used every ounce of our experience to create something special here. This is Sandals of the future.

I hope that you will soon discover that Sandals is much, much more than hotel resorts. We aim to integrate ourselves fully in the community, not just through the employment the resort will provide but also through our Sandals Foundation. You'll be hearing more in the coming weeks.

Finally, on behalf of everyone at the company I would like to thank you, the people of Grenada, for the welcome you have shown us. Since the moment we signaled our intentions to acquire the property, the warmth and reception we have received has been nothing short of extraordinary. We never take anything for granted and we will work hard to repay the faith you have placed in us by providing you with a resort you will be proud of.

All the best,

Adam Stewart
Chief Executive Officer

Sandals LaSource Grenada

A NEW CHAPTER

In the past seven years alone, we have invested hundreds of millions of dollars in what we call the 'Luxury Included' concept. So what is it and why are holidaymakers all over the world raving about it? In order to fully understand what the 'Luxury Included' concept is, it's important to know what it's not and that's unimaginative buffet lines, unbranded liquor and cheap, uncomfortable rooms. 'Luxury Included' is an ethos, slogan and a guide all rolled into one. It's where we take the very best of every component of a memorable vacation and combine them.

The key ingredients of a Sandals resort is luxurious rooms and suites including four-postered beds and marbled baths, first class à la carte restaurants, signature pool bars, scuba diving and watersports, 24-hour room service, unlimited premium brand liquors and much, much more.

The launch of Sandals LaSource Grenada represents our first expansion into the beautiful island of Grenada and we promise it will be spectacular! 225 rooms and suites across three distinct villages, some uniquely serviced by a personal butler exclusively trained to the standards of the Guild of Professional English Butlers. Can you imagine not having to unpack your bags or run a bath? Imagine lounging by the pool while your own personal butler walks over to hand you a refreshing fruit sorbet, cool towels and cucumber slices? At Sandals LaSource Grenada, this luxury will no longer be imagined – it will be real.

Restaurants and Bars

Guests will be able to satiate their palates at their choice of nine global, gourmet-dining options, including the chain's first top-tier steakhouse called Butch's Chophouse, named after the resort company's founder and chairman. Housed in the Pink Gin Village, Sandals LaSource Grenada's impressive gastronomic experiences will include Soy, a sushi bar; Café De Paris, a French café; Spices, serving Caribbean cuisine; Le Jardinier, a French restaurant; and Neptunes, a Mediterranean beach bar. What's more, there are four bars too!

Marketing Sandals LaSource Grenada

It goes without saying that the most beautiful setting and the most luxurious accommodations and facilities deserve the very best marketing campaigns. We spend millions of dollars a year on marketing our properties with one objective in mind – keep the resorts full! It works too.

Thanks to our famous marketing, Sandals is one of the Caribbean's best known brands and the resorts boast some of the highest average occupancies all year round. Sandals is the Caribbean and we are exclusive to the Caribbean so promoting our island homes is present in all we do. We won't just market Sandals LaSource Grenada. We will market Grenada as a destination too. We take each individual aspect of Grenada; the beaches, the mountains, the wonderful people and the 'spiced' charm and we market each piece of the puzzle. Here's just a few of ways we'll be letting the world know about Grenada and Sandals LaSource.

Advertising

We will utilise creative advertising including everything from billboards and TV commercials, to magazines and taxi cabs. In the coming months, our creative crew will be visiting to shoot commercials and photographs that will help to sell the resort and the destination.

Times Square, New York City

Sophisticated E-Marketing

Nowadays more and more people turn to the internet to find places to visit and resorts to stay at. We'll ensure we have a great online presence so when they're considering a holiday – we're top of mind and top of list. Just check out www.sandals.com and you'll see Sandals LaSource Grenada is already there!

Global PR Campaigns

Whether it's as simple as inviting international journalists to write a review on their Sandals and Grenadian experience or as high profile as hosting multi-station radio broadcasts right off the pool deck, we'll be looking to create a buzz in the media. Don't be surprised to see the occasional celebrity strolling down the streets of St. George's either!

Industry Relations

Travel agents are the heart and soul of the Sandals sales force. We have a global network of 100 Sandals sales professionals in USA, Canada, UK, Germany, Italy, France, Latvia, Russia, Spain and South America who make their living selling all our resorts. We will be helping them in creative ways such as providing them with branded luxury vehicles and educational workshops, equipping them with all the tools needed to promote both Grenada and Sandals LaSource Grenada.

Weddings

As Caribbean market leader, Sandals offers unrivaled destination wedding planning service, to couples seeking a truly unique and unforgettable WeddingMoon™ in paradise. We orchestrate thousands of weddings across the group every year and to maximize this lucrative market, we recently launched an online wedding planner, putting the details at each couple's fingertips.

Returning Guests

Thanks to our unique product and style of service, Sandals Resorts' guests return an incredible number of times. We recognize them with a guest magazine, 'Sandals Life' and exclusive on-property luncheons, not to mention ongoing promotions, gifts and personalized recognition to ensure they return time and time again. Their positive testimonials and word-of-mouth promotion are also priceless contributions to our marketing efforts.

Living 'Funner' in Grenada!

We want our visitors to have the full island experience and through Island Routes Caribbean Adventures' contagious 'live funner' philosophy, all visitors to Grenada will have an opportunity to immerse themselves in the unique culture and explore all the natural wonders of the Spice Isle.

With an initial inventory of 16 new off-road adventures, water-based attractions, epicurean and cultural excursions including picturesque views of Grenada's colorful coastline on fast, inflatable motorboats, a 60 foot catamaran or deep-sea fishing boats and Island Routes' Jeep safaris through Grenada's rainforest, home to the popular Mono monkeys, there'll be an adventure for everyone! Cultural excursions exposing guests to the island's spices, exotic flowers, rare fruits, and rich, organic, locally-made chocolate and award-winning rums that have given Grenada international recognition, will also be offered.

Joining the Family

Someone once said "Sandals employs and develops people - not employees" and it remains an ethos that is followed religiously. The enthusiasm, professionalism and talent of Sandals team members across all our resorts are some of the main reasons why the resort wins awards and guests return year after year.

As well as some of the most competitive salary and gratuity packages in the country, our team members benefit from a superb staff-relations program. Here are just a few reasons why thousands of people across the Caribbean consider Sandals Resorts a great place to work.

Training and the Sandals Corporate University

Last March, we launched what is perhaps our proudest staff development initiative to date, the Sandals Corporate University (SCU). Created with a mission to help team members across the region reach their fullest potential, the SCU provides staff with opportunities to pursue high school equivalency programmes, Associate and Bachelor's Degrees, higher degrees, professional certification courses and core courses in customer service and leadership, to name a few.

Most of our programmes are offered in partnership with renowned institutions such as The University of the West Indies, Ryerson University, Florida International University and we're in negotiations with several more. The majority of the courses are uniquely structured to allow team members to study while on the job and to make it even easier for our staff to access these opportunities, the SCU offers up to US$200,000 a year in scholarships. To date, over 800 team members across the region have registered with 147 receiving scholarships. We look forward to bringing the SCU to the Spice Isle!

In addition, we recently re-introduced our Management Trainee Programme (MTP) which exposes promising young people to aspects of resort operations through a two-year period of on-the-job training. Upon successful completion, our trainees are placed in management positions as they become available. There are presently over 20 persons enrolled in the MTP.

All Sandals Resorts have a dedicated training department to help team members develop both professionally and personally, readying them for the world and preparing hoteliers of the future. We provide new team members over 120 hours of training each year in areas ranging from First Aid to Fire Response. We also provide opportunities to develop through cross-training so if a team member who works in security really wants to be a top chef – he or she can!

Team Member Awards

We believe wholeheartedly in rewarding hard work and we are aware that the dedication and devotion of our team members is key to the success of our brand. Through our Prestige Awards, held on each resort to reward outstanding performers and our grand Ultimate Award, which names one team member as the overall model employee across the group, we show our endless gratitude to our beloved staff, urging them always to strive for the best and aptly rewarding them when they do. Cash prizes, state-of-the-art electronics, all-expense paid overseas vacations and a big celebratory bash are but a few of the ways we say thanks to our team members.

Seasonal and Ad-Hoc Parties

At our resorts, team members are family and they enjoy exclusive staff luncheons to celebrate Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter as well as Fathers' and Mothers' Day and more.

Illness and Bereavement Packages

Like a real family, we're here when our team members need us. Whether through donating food and beverages at a funeral wake or flowers and baskets of fruit when they're feeling ill, we have a system in place to support our team members when they need it the most. Sandals team members also enjoy free uniforms and meals while on duty as well as a daily newsletter to keep everyone up to date with the resort's activities and upcoming events.

Sport, Social and Cultural Clubs

All work and no play make Jack[and Jill] quite dull and we don't like dull! Across all resorts, we have active Sports and Social Clubs created and operated by team members, for team members. These clubs host a wide array of activities and events including sporting and culinary competitions, staff socials and pageants as well as kids camps during the summer months.

Team Building Days

Teamwork is an important part of working at Sandals Resorts and we foster great relations by holding tailor-made team-building days to help our crew connect and work together.

Sandals in the Community

We recognize that a world exists outside of Sandals and we are pleased to say that we have a long tradition of successful community partnerships. Bolstered even further by the launch of the Sandals Foundation four years ago, our philanthropic efforts across the region are three-pronged; targeting the community, the environment and education.

Since the launch of the Foundation, we have implemented several projects and programmes in each focus area, creating a lasting impact and sustainable growth every step of the way. Our environmental efforts include projects such as our Climate Change Project in Antigua and St. Lucia, a massive Lionfish campaign across the region, the Save Our Conch campaign in the Bahamas, a turtle conservation programme along Jamaica's south coast and several other projects across the region, including tree planting, coastal clean ups and recycling campaigns. Most recently, we made a US$50,000 donation to the CaribbeanSick Kids Paediatric Cancer and Blood Disorders Project, an initiative aimed at improving the diagnosis and treatment of paediatric cancers and blood disorders in the Caribbean. The project will help build health care capacity in six Caribbean countries by training health professionals, providing consultation and diagnostic expertise, and developing and expanding access to treatment and supportive care in their own countries.

Since 2009, the Sandals Foundation, in collaboration with various partners, has donated over 100,000 books to schools across the region, trained over 540 regional teachers in areas like Phonics and Mathematics and impacted over 11,000 students across the region through various initiatives. Our cricket and golf academies have also served the region's youngsters well, instilling discipline and the ideals of sportsmanship, while exposing them to fun sports.

We look forward to bringing similar and new initiatives to Grenada in the coming months. Here are a few other ways we plan to get involved:

ADOPTED SCHOOLS

Each Sandals resort adopts a local school, sometimes more than one, and supports them through a number of fun and creative ways including fun days, field trips and visits and cultural activities. We have 26 adopted schools across the region.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Each year we select two high school students and supply them with the things they need to make the most out of their education such as uniforms, study books and ongoing support. To date, we've awarded 136 scholarships.

FOUNDATION THURSDAYS

Once we've launched, each Thursday on resort will be dedicated to 'All Things Foundation'. We will use this day to host special activities and increase awareness of the Foundation among guests and staff alike. We'll also encourage our guests to contribute to the cause through various fundraising activities like auctions. The money donated will then be used in the community.

VOLUNTOURISM

In the months to come, we'll be inviting guests and our travel partners to venture into the community and undertake a series of community projects. Primary among these is our exciting Reading Roadtrip, an initiative launched in 2011. This allows guests to visit local schools, often our adopted schools, and spend time reading with the children and engaging in stimulating activities. This is a great way for guests to see the island whilst contributing to a great cause. So whether it be the creation of vegetable gardens in schools, upgrading or creating a local library or computer lab – we're interested! We realise that the people that know the community best is the community itself so our eyes are always open looking for new sustainable ideas.

The Sandals Foundation in Numbers

- 26 Schools Adopted
- 136 Scholarships Awarded
- 544 Teachers Trained
- 28 Computer Labs Built
- 24 Children's Homes and Infirmarys Supported
- 106,000 Books Donated

- 3,500 Cats And Dogs Spayed and Neutered

Sandals and the Environment

We know that many people visit the Caribbean to experience the beautiful environment which is why we feel very strongly about sustainable travel and tourism policies and practices. We care deeply about our oceans and marine life which is why we will have a progressive environmental & sustainability program at Sandals LaSource Grenada with a on-site environmental health & safety manager to oversee everything. We'll be involved in everything from water and energy conservation programs, the protection and conservation of marine life and beaches and recycling campaigns. All Sandals resorts are certified by EarthCheck and we are proud to state that nine of our resorts have been awarded platinum certifications - the highest level possible - from EarthCheck, the world's leading certification programme for sustainable travel and tourism.

Naturally, we set strict standards for ourselves and initiatives such as our own environmental management programme 'Sandals Earthguard' will make sure we run Sandals LaSource Grenada with Mother Nature in mind.

We are excited to bring all the core elements of our Earthguard programme to Sandals La Source and we will ensure that our team members as well as local community groups are engaged and involved. Sandals La Source will also have its very own Environmental, Health and Safety Manager, devoted to furthering the cause of the environment, both on and off resort.

In keeping with our commitment to the environment, the following Sandals Earthguard policies will be implemented at Sandals La Source:

- The water in 80% of guests' rooms will be heated by solar energy
- Rooms will be equipped with LED lighting to conserve electricity
- Grey water from AC units and ice machines will be recycled and used for irrigation and landscaping purposes
- Close relationships with local farmers and community members will be established
- Rooms will be fitted with inverter split units and occupancy sensor controls for lights and A/C units
- Energy-efficient chillers will be installed
- In order to reduce waste, we will work alongside animal farmers to get rid of unwanted vegetables and other items
- An aggressive recycling program

Your Questions Answered...

Over the past few weeks we've been talking to everyone from taxi drivers and immigration officials through to employees of the previous resort and members of the business community. We appreciate that there are many questions on people's minds. Here are some answers to questions we know lots of people are asking:

THE RESORT

Q: When does Sandals LaSource Grenada officially open?

A: The resort is scheduled to open on December 12th 2013.

Q: Could you have opened any sooner?

A: At Sandals, we have an obligation to our clientele to offer them the 'Sandals Experience' and they arrive with high expectations. There are also lots of unique components that make up a Sandals resort, such as signature swim-up pool bars and multiple dining options so we're taking the time to put as many of those features in place before we open. It is vital that when we open the doors that we are ready to blow the guests away. It'll be worth the wait!

Q: What airlines will be operating into St. George's?

A: Over the past few months we have held discussions with both the Government and a number of leading international airlines and we are striving to provide increased airlift to the island wherever possible. When we have new information, we'll update you.

Q: How will guests travel from the airport to the resort?

A: We will be using the island's existing fleet of taxi drivers and are in the process of finalizing this at the present time.

Q: Are you planning anything that incorporates the island's culture?

A: Grenada is blessed with a fantastically rich heritage and history and so we will be building various aspects of this into our resort. We'll be celebrating the culture of Grenada in everything we do.

Q: Do you have plans to use local produce in the resort?

A: Absolutely. As well as the wonderful spices for which the country is often known, Grenada obviously offers an abundance of delicious locally-grown fruit, vegetables and other supplies and we are committed to using them as much as possible. Over the coming months, we'll be forming partnerships with Grenadian farmers and suppliers to ensure we're buying locally. Nothing beats fresh, local produce.

RECRUITMENT

Q: How many people will you be recruiting and when will the recruitment process start?

A: We will be aiming to operate the resort with approximately 500 team members and have already begun the recruiting process via job fairs held in St. George's.

Q: I heard that Sandals will be bringing in most of our senior staff. Is this correct?

A: This is untrue. Our company operates in a very unique way and our guests expect a certain type and level of service therefore a number of our company's executive team will be on hand initially to help ensure a smooth opening phase and oversee the training of our local team members. We are committed to providing employment throughout the resort to Grenadians.

Q: Is it true that former LaSource staff have first preference on positions at the resort?

A: Yes. We are committed to providing employment to those individuals who were made redundant.

SANDALS AND THE COMMUNITY

Q: Sandals operate all-inclusive style resorts. How will that benefit the local community?

A: Sandals offer 'Luxury-Included' vacations which means that almost everything in the guest's vacation is included in the price they pay before they leave home. However, we strongly believe that guests must go out into the community to fully experience the destination which is why we will incorporate many new activities to feature 'Grenadian life' including Gouyave Fish Friday, Saraka, Carriacou Workboat Regattas, Spicemas and Steelpan! In addition, local businesses will benefit from our advertising campaigns which market the destination as well as the resort.

Q: Will you offer tours into the community too?

A: Absolutely. We know that a fantastic world exists outside of Sandals resorts and we proactively encourage our guests to venture forth and experience the 'real' Grenada. Through our tour subsidiary, Island Routes Caribbean Adventures, we will offer guests the ultimate in destination experiences, bringing together and certifying the best tours that spotlight what is unique and beautiful in Grenada. Over the next few weeks we'll be working with local operators to develop these tours and promote them to guests before they even leave their house.

Q: Can members of the public visit the property and enjoy the facilities?

A: Of course! All a member of the public needs to do in order to experience Sandals LaSource Grenada is purchase a day or night pass. This entitles them to come onto the property and enjoy the resort's restaurants, bars, pools, tennis courts and gymnasium to their heart's content. We'll be releasing further information on day and night passes nearer to the launch date.

Q: Can the local community use the Spa and will there be a discount for local residents?

A: Yes. We welcome the public to enjoy the award-winning Red Lane Spa, local residents can simply ring up and book an appointment. We'll be offering a wide array of treatments from hairdressing and massages to manicures and pedicures.

Q: I read the information about The Sandals Foundation and have some ideas for sustainable projects that involve education, environment and community. What do I do?

A: We're always excited to hear about new projects and welcome you to send us as much information as you can to karen.zacca@sri.sandals.com. Be sure to include your contact details.
