Anguilla succumb to Lucia Pressure

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten – July 24th, 2015 – St. Lucia remain on course to defend title after a straight set (25-17, 25-21 and 25- 17) victory over Anguilla in the first match of day 2 of the ECVA Junior Male Championships.

The sub regional powerhouse took a little over 1 hour to overpower the Anguillans who were making a valiant attempt at resisting.

The Anguillans scoring was so poor that they had to rely on opponents errors to garner almost 80% (43 of 55) of their points. On the individual level two players in Aiden Hazzard and Aldus Frank both had 3 points to be the top scorers for the losers,

St. Lucia dominated the scoring with 23 to 5 in Spikes, 9 to 3 in Blocks and 6 to 4 from the service line.

Anton Richards in the Middle Blocker position for St. Lucia was the leading scorer of the game with 8 but support came from all his regular team mates. Andre Marquis and Levy Leonce each contributed 7 Alexander Augier had 6 Elijah Lionel and Scott Louis both chipped in with 5

Coach Germaine Elvin was pleased with the effort. “This is a team that we have researched and we noted that there are areas that they have improved from the last time we played them. Their serves was very good and their overall play forced us to raise our bar of competitiveness. Hence our blockers got in position at the appropriate time, our reception was good, and we had a decent attack although at times there were some spells when especially the younger players got timid and fail to execute on a play. However they grew in confidence and gave us yet another satisfactory victory”, he recounted.

Coach of Anguilla had high praise for the victors. “The St. Lucia team literally took away what we had planned. Our attack turned out to n=be one dimensional and all credit to them they muted that attack. Overall inexperience showed up again as we were doing some things well but we did not do them in a consistent manner enough to hurt a team such as St. Lucia. This was compounded by many unforced errors. This meant that we were not able to compete,” he explained.

St. Vincent and the Grenadines brushes aside Antigua to book a berth in ECVA Junior Male finals

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten – July 24th, 2015: - All in keeping with their intention to win this Junior Tournament, St. Vincent and the Grenadines (SVG) easily disposed of Antigua and Barbuda in straight sets (25-17, 25-15 and 25-19) in their second match of Pool B action in the ECVA Junior Male Championship.

Due to the fact that it is a three team pool, SVG earned the right to play in the final of the ECVA Junior Male competition against the winner of Pool A as they have won both of their games so far.

Team SVG bossed the team scoring board with a 39-24 advantage in spiking. A sizeable lead in Blocks 6-1 and the 8 service points that were poured in by SVG were met with a zero response.

Middle Blocker for Team SVG was the highest contributor on the night with 15 points while he got good support from Ronaldo Franklyn (Outside Hitter) with 11 points. For Team Antigua Amoy Lee mustered 7 points mostly from kills in an effort to resist.

Coach Vance Andrew cracked a half smile at the end of the game. “We reviewed our last game and we came out determined to show improvement in the service and defense areas and they both worked for us in this game. Now we are on course with our plans for championship and I would like to commend all the players but especially the Asmond Franklyn and Marcus Thomas who literally controlled things in offence and defense respectively and the setter who ran the plays during the game. I believe the opponents tried their best but they just couldn’t get the upper hand on us”, he said.

Antiguan coach Olsen Joseph was shell shocked. “This is a shadow of a team that I know he quipped. They appeared to be timid, shy and nervous or combinations of all three. Having said that I must note that it was their first game in an overseas competitive setting so we have to learn for this and come out swinging from ball one in order to redeem ourselves by at least playing for the third place level”, he said.

Antigua next plays St. Maarten while SVG awaits an opponent for the final.

Dominica outlasts St. Vincent and the Grenadines in exciting 5 setter

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten – July 24th, 2015- Fortunes flowed like a metronome between Dominica and St. Vincent in Match # 6 of the ECVA Junior Male Tournament. Both teams battled for almost two hours. First Dominica controlled the momentum and then suffered a meltdown that allowed Grenada to take over and level the series. It was only until the final game that Dominica got a spark and used it to blaze a fire to the end and won in 5 sets – 25 -14, 25-19, 6 -25,18- 25 and 15-11.

Dominica had a spread offence with no one really dominating but everyone contributing. Camron Challenger had 7 points, Tamir Lawrence and Daniel Pollock had 6 each while Faywani Foye and Arden James both chipped in with 5. On the other hand Grenada rode on the back of Jernel John who had 18 points gathered from 9 Kills and 8 service aces. Jayvon Gilbert was the other high scorer with 12 points.

Despite winning the game, Dominica was behind in all the scoring categories. They trailed in spikes 22- 28. They had 7 blocks to Grenada's 10 and could only manage 5 points from the service line while Grenada won 13. They were however fortunate to collect a whopping 55 points from errors during the game.

Coach Ray Robinson had this to say when asked about the game. "We started very well and everything was going according to plan in the first two sets. In the third we had a total melt down and lost all concentration. We probably thought that we had the game in our hands and let down our guard. I must commend Grenada who realized this and fought a good fight to level the scores. In the team huddle we emphasized teamwork as the spirit of the guys were being affected by the resurgence of Grenada. The leadership of our captain paid off as he was able to bring back some vibes and a fighting spirit back on the court. It was immediately after that our game came together and we started doing the correct things of blocking, creating offence and gaining points. I am just happy that our game came together at the right time", he said.

Josh Noel of Grenada had a different view "We laid back and underestimated the opponents. We then got into our game and tied up the scores but in the final game I believe we became too confident especially after getting out to an early lead on the back of winning the last two games. I must commend Dominica as they did very well to come back", he intimated.

Dominica was left with one more crucial game against St. Lucia to determine Pool winners and the right to play against St. Vincent and the Grenadines from Pool B. Grenada meanwhile was knocked out of medal contention and at best could only play for 4th provided that they win their last game against Anguilla.
